Women Thriving Worldwide

Mission

Mobilizing, inspiring, and honoring women and their families from all cultures to lead and achieve personal success.

Honoring

The Honoring Leaders of Tomorrow program is designed to help students exude actions showing profound respect, deep care, and high regard for themselves and each other.

HWW is entering its 3rd year mentoring approximately 870 boys and girls at BCMS.

Program Objectives

To enable middle school students to learn from successful leaders how to develop positive leadership and life skills; to enhance student achievement and build strategies to create a life-giving future.

Students learn to:

- Adopt the philosophy of honoring themselves and each other.
- Value their strengths.
- Recognize their talents and capabilities.
- Build their self-esteem and confidence to believe they can become leaders in their own right.
- Create individual vision and roadmaps for their future.

Program Format for Mentors

- Meet monthly for two-hour sessions.
- Receive and follow the same agenda as other mentors for each mentoring session.
- Mentor 6-9 students in a circle.
- Give and receive helpful/candid feedback.
- Impact students' personal/academic lives.
